First came Come Prima. Published in 2013, the album was a resounding success. It was awarded the Fauve d'or at the Angoulême International Comics Festival in 2014 and later adapted for the big screen and as a musical. Come Prima was followed, in 2019, by Senso, also published by Éditions Delcourt. And finally, in 2023, Maltempo completed the trio, to form a trilogy unlike any other.

For each of these three books, Alfred took his inspiration from Italy – its light, its nostalgia and its songs, both happy and sad – to create memorable settings in which each of his characters plays a prominent role. Every one of his pages is charged with emotion. Two brothers are at odds during a melancholy road trip; a forty-year-old finds himself adrift in a hotel no less dreary; an aimless youth dreams of a future in music... And the same emotional charge invests Alfred's drawings and illustrations evoking trans-alpine life. Forming the centrepiece of this exhibition, they demonstrate the graphic range of a most singular artist, one whose work is deeply moving. Come and judge that for yourselves!

HUBERTY & BREYNE

Huberty & Breyne is a contemporary art gallery specializing in comic books, founded in 1989 and now run by Alain Huberty and Marie-Caroline Bronzini. With locations in Brussels and Paris, it promotes established and emerging artists linked to or inspired by the 9th art.

Its exhibitions of original comic strips, paintings, and sculptures support contemporary creation in all its diversity and the blending of disciplines. An international reference in the field of the ninth art, it offers collectors a rigorous selection of works by classic and promising artists.

The gallery takes part in major art market events, participating in international fairs such as Brafa, Art Paris, and Drawing Now. It has a 1,000 m<sup>2</sup> space in Brussels, on Place du Châtelain, and two spaces in Paris, on Avenue Matignon and Rue Chapon.

In addition to his gallery activities, Alain Huberty is a comic book expert for auction houses.
