Eight diptychs, three themes, sixteen striking images... Andreas is an avid cartoon fan and has been quietly building a magnificent comic-book œuvre since Rork, his famous protagonist, first appeared in the pages of Tintin magazine in 1978.

For this exhibition, Andreas has abandoned comic strip and created instead large-format images whose size, beauty and power instantly draw the eye. Some of them feature his familiar characters Rork and Deliah, but Andreas has also moved here into unfamiliar territory in creating a breathtaking series of hommages to Batman and – by way of splendid conclusion – a diptych featuring two highly symbolic female figures from Greek mythology – the Gorgon and Pandora.

*Deliah nature - 100 x 36 cm,

*Gorgone - 90 x 30 cm,
Indian ink on paper.*

Pandore - 70 x 50 cm, Indian ink on paper.

---

This exhibition and sale is, in the truest sense, exceptional, since Andreas insists that it is a one-off and that after this series of drawings he will be returning permanently to comic-book creation.

Watch this space...

HUBERTY & BREYNE

Huberty & Breyne is a contemporary art gallery specialising in original cartoon work. Operating out of Brussels and Paris under the direction of Alain Huberty and Marc Breyne, the gallery – which has been in existence for almost 30 years – represents both established and up-and-coming artists linked to, or inspired by, the 9th art.

Its exhibitions of original plates, paintings and sculptures champion contemporary art in all its guises and provide a platform for the crossover of different disciplines. A key reference point in the world of comic art, the Huberty & Breyne gallery offers collectors a rigorous selection of works by both household names and promising newcomers.

The gallery is closely involved with the contemporary art market scene and a contributor at major international fairs such as Brafa (Brussels Antiques & Fine Arts Fair), 1 – 54 London, Art Paris and Drawing Now. It occupies a 1,000m<sup>2</sup> exhibition space in Brussels, in place du Châtelain, and two further exhibition spaces in Paris, in avenue Matignon and rue Chapon.

Aside from running the gallery, Alain Huberty and Marc Breyne also advise auction houses regarding the sale of works of comic art.
