Inexistences - Cover - 55,6 x 40 cm (detail)

After eight years writing scripts for his various series, Christophe Bec has done a spectacular about-turn with the publication of his album Inexistences. A hybrid work, part comic book, part art book, Inexistences is essential Christophe Bec and draws on his central concerns as an artist – our human response in the face of extreme fear and the threat to our survival, the power of nature, fantasy, and above all the importance of hope, in the face of whatever challenges. There are some hundred images here with a range of approaches and formats, from intimate portraits revealing the characters' flaws to vast compositions that are veritable odes to human folly.

Developing the themes of Sanctuaire, Bunker and Carthago, with Inexistences Christophe Bec brings us a ground-breaking work that demonstrates his enormous talent and his ability to engage the reader's emotions – something he demonstrates once again as he gets to grips with a Thorgal Saga.

HUBERTY & BREYNE

Huberty & Breyne is a contemporary art gallery specialising in original cartoon work. Operating out of Brussels and Paris under the direction of Alain Huberty and Marc Breyne, the gallery – which has been in existence for almost 30 years – represents both established and up-and-coming artists linked to, or inspired by, the 9th art.

Its exhibitions of original plates, paintings and sculptures champion contemporary art in all its guises and provide a platform for the crossover of different disciplines. A key reference point in the world of comic art, the Huberty & Breyne gallery offers collectors a rigorous selection of works by both household names and promising newcomers.

The gallery is closely involved with the contemporary art market scene and a contributor at major international fairs such as Brafa (Brussels Antiques & Fine Arts Fair), 1 – 54 London, Art Paris and Drawing Now. It occupies a 1,000m² exhibition space in Brussels, in place du Châtelain, and two further exhibition spaces in Paris, in avenue Matignon and rue Chapon.

Aside from running the gallery, Alain Huberty and Marc Breyne also advise auction houses regarding the sale of works of comic art.
