Volume 3 of La Fortune de Winczlav transports the reader to a world of great visual riches where every scene is minutely drawn and adds an immersive depth to the story. Philippe Berthet's precise and expressive drawing style brings Van Hamme's characters vividly to life, while his acute eye for detail turns each individual panel into a miniature work of art. With his subtle colour palette and skilful use of light and shadow, Berthet creates a haunting atmosphere that chimes perfectly with the tone of the story, and every plate exemplifies his technical virtuosity and the elegance of his aesthetic approach.

What makes this a stand-out album is not the intriguing storyline alone but also the exceptional quality of the artwork. It confirms, once again, Philippe Berthet's place among the key names in contemporary Franco-Belgian comics.

HUBERTY & BREYNE

Huberty & Breyne is a contemporary art gallery specialising in original cartoon work. Operating out of Brussels and Paris under the direction of Alain Huberty and Marc Breyne, the gallery – which has been in existence for almost 30 years – represents both established and up-and-coming artists linked to, or inspired by, the 9th art.

Its exhibitions of original plates, paintings and sculptures champion contemporary art in all its guises and provide a platform for the crossover of different disciplines. A key reference point in the world of comic art, the Huberty & Breyne gallery offers collectors a rigorous selection of works by both household names and promising newcomers.

The gallery is closely involved with the contemporary art market scene and a contributor at major international fairs such as Brafa (Brussels Antiques & Fine Arts Fair), 1 – 54 London, Art Paris and Drawing Now. It occupies a 1,000m² exhibition space in Brussels, in place du Châtelain, and two further exhibition spaces in Paris, in avenue Matignon and rue Chapon.

Aside from running the gallery, Alain Huberty and Marc Breyne also advise auction houses regarding the sale of works of comic art.
