Stan Manoukian - Habillage boitier, India ink and red pencil on paper, 12 x 22 cm, Signed bottom left

Huberty & Breyne is delighted to be hosting an exhibition at its avenue Matignon gallery to mark the publication of the Triomphes boxed set of tarot and Scopa divination cards by Éditions Glénat. The original works on show are by the 38 artists who each illustrated one of the 38 playing cards, together with Stan Manoukian's illustrations for the design on the box.

A fascinating voyage of discovery that explores the Major and Minor Arcana through the medium of art.

HUBERTY & BREYNE

Huberty & Breyne is a contemporary art gallery specialising in original cartoon work. Operating out of Brussels and Paris under the direction of Alain Huberty and Marc Breyne, the gallery – which has been in existence for almost 30 years – represents both established and up-and-coming artists linked to, or inspired by, the 9th art.

Its exhibitions of original plates, paintings and sculptures champion contemporary art in all its guises and provide a platform for the crossover of different disciplines. A key reference point in the world of comic art, the Huberty & Breyne gallery offers collectors a rigorous selection of works by both household names and promising newcomers.

The gallery is closely involved with the contemporary art market scene and a contributor at major international fairs such as Brafa (Brussels Antiques & Fine Arts Fair), 1 – 54 London, Art Paris and Drawing Now. It occupies a 1,000m² exhibition space in Brussels, in place du Châtelain, and two further exhibition spaces in Paris, in avenue Matignon and rue Chapon.

Aside from running the gallery, Alain Huberty and Marc Breyne also advise auction houses regarding the sale of works of comic art.
