Loustal has been bringing out comic albums for 40 years, each new publication a landmark event. His work first started appearing in magazines at the beginning of the 1980s, with contributions to Rock & Folk, (À Suivre), Métal Hurlant and Pilote. The author of both short comics and graphic novels and the recipient of numerous prizes and critical accolades, Loustal has sometimes worked solo but more often in collaboration with the likes of Paringaux, Fromental, Charyn, Coatelem, Götting, Lehane, Villard and Benacquista, producing works that are moving from both a narrative and an aesthetic point of view but also coupled with moments of humour. This retrospective exclusively dedicated to Loustal's comic albums gives viewers an insight into the stylistic evolution of an artist equally at home in colour and in black and white, inviting them to go back in time and experience the emotional impact of albums of which these original plates form the very essence.

La Métamorphose - Franz Kafka's novel by Loustal. Published in «Das Magazin», n°44

HUBERTY & BREYNE

Huberty & Breyne is a contemporary art gallery specialising in original cartoon work. Operating out of Brussels and Paris under the direction of Alain Huberty and Marc Breyne, the gallery – which has been in existence for almost 30 years – represents both established and up-and-coming artists linked to, or inspired by, the 9th art.

Its exhibitions of original plates, paintings and sculptures champion contemporary art in all its guises and provide a platform for the crossover of different disciplines. A key reference point in the world of comic art, the Huberty & Breyne gallery offers collectors a rigorous selection of works by both household names and promising newcomers.

The gallery is closely involved with the contemporary art market scene and a contributor at major international fairs such as Brafa (Brussels Antiques & Fine Arts Fair), 1 – 54 London, Art Paris and Drawing Now. It occupies a 1,000m² exhibition space in Brussels, in place du Châtelain, and two further exhibition spaces in Paris, in avenue Matignon and rue Chapon.

Aside from running the gallery, Alain Huberty and Marc Breyne also advise auction houses regarding the sale of works of comic art.
