From 10 November to 9 December 2023, Huberty & Breyne is honoured to be hosting an exhibition of original works by Fabrice Neaud, designed to coincide with the publication of Le Dernier Sergent, volume 1 in Neaud's Les Guerres immobiles series (Éditions Delcourt).

Fabrice Neaud is a key figure in the "independent" comics movement and the creator of a colossal body of autobiographical work. Neaud's pages analyse and challenge ideas about creativity, love and, above all, the homophobia and sense of insecurity so prevalent in France at the start of the millennium. In a truly remarkable project, the artist – whose award-winning work has been shown in Europe and Japan and, on multiple occasions, provided the focus for university studies – simultaneously references Dürer and Eribon, Bach and Vermeer, Malher, Dustan, Benderson and Proust...

Le Dernier Sergent T01 - Planche 302

Neaud's dynamic narratives, his tone, his linguistic dexterity, his philosophical and literary concerns and his drawing style (using pen and Indian ink exclusively) combine to produce a breathtakingly coherent whole, while his – frequently strong – emotions are palpable in every one of his illustrations. The selection of pages on display here is accompanied by a series of drawings – portraits and landscapes – that offer a new perspective on this artist's work.

HUBERTY & BREYNE

Huberty & Breyne is a contemporary art gallery specialising in original cartoon work. Operating out of Brussels and Paris under the direction of Alain Huberty and Marc Breyne, the gallery – which has been in existence for almost 30 years – represents both established and up-and-coming artists linked to, or inspired by, the 9th art.

Its exhibitions of original plates, paintings and sculptures champion contemporary art in all its guises and provide a platform for the crossover of different disciplines. A key reference point in the world of comic art, the Huberty & Breyne gallery offers collectors a rigorous selection of works by both household names and promising newcomers.

The gallery is closely involved with the contemporary art market scene and a contributor at major international fairs such as Brafa (Brussels Antiques & Fine Arts Fair), 1 – 54 London, Art Paris and Drawing Now. It occupies a 1,000m<sup>2</sup> exhibition space in Brussels, in place du Châtelain, and two further exhibition spaces in Paris, in avenue Matignon and rue Chapon.

Aside from running the gallery, Alain Huberty and Marc Breyne also advise auction houses regarding the sale of works of comic art.
