PARIS | Les Arts dessinés

19 rue Chapon,
Paris 3^e

From 2 to 23 September, the Huberty & Breyne | Les Arts dessinés gallery will be showing a selection of drawings by the children's book author and illustrator Yvan Pommaux.

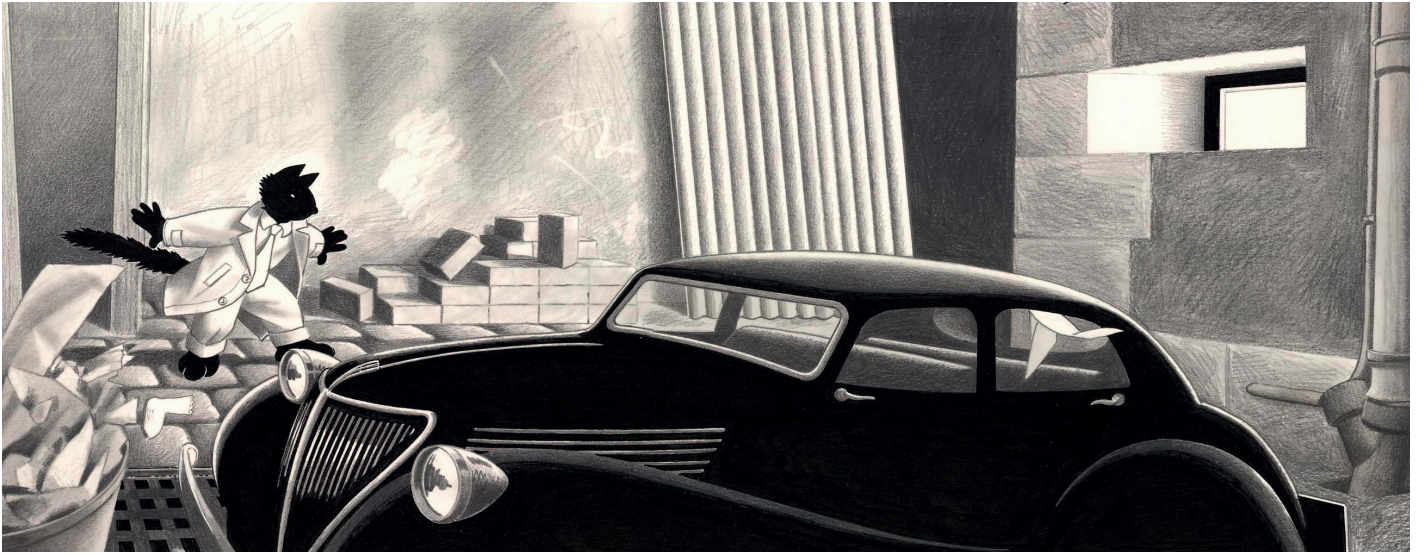

Born in Vichy on 13 September 1946, Yvan Pommaux has been drawing since an early age. After studying at the School of Fine Arts in Clermont-Ferrand and later Bourges, he had various working roles before becoming a layout artist for Éditions de l'École (later L'École des loisirs) in Paris.

During the 1970s, Pommaux left Paris, moving to Touraine with his wife and two daughters, and began working independently on a whole variety of projects, in collaboration with his wife, who is a colourist. Pommaux has more than 30 publications to his name, ranging from comic book to documentary and children's literature, and including mysteries, love stories and beautifully recrafted classics.

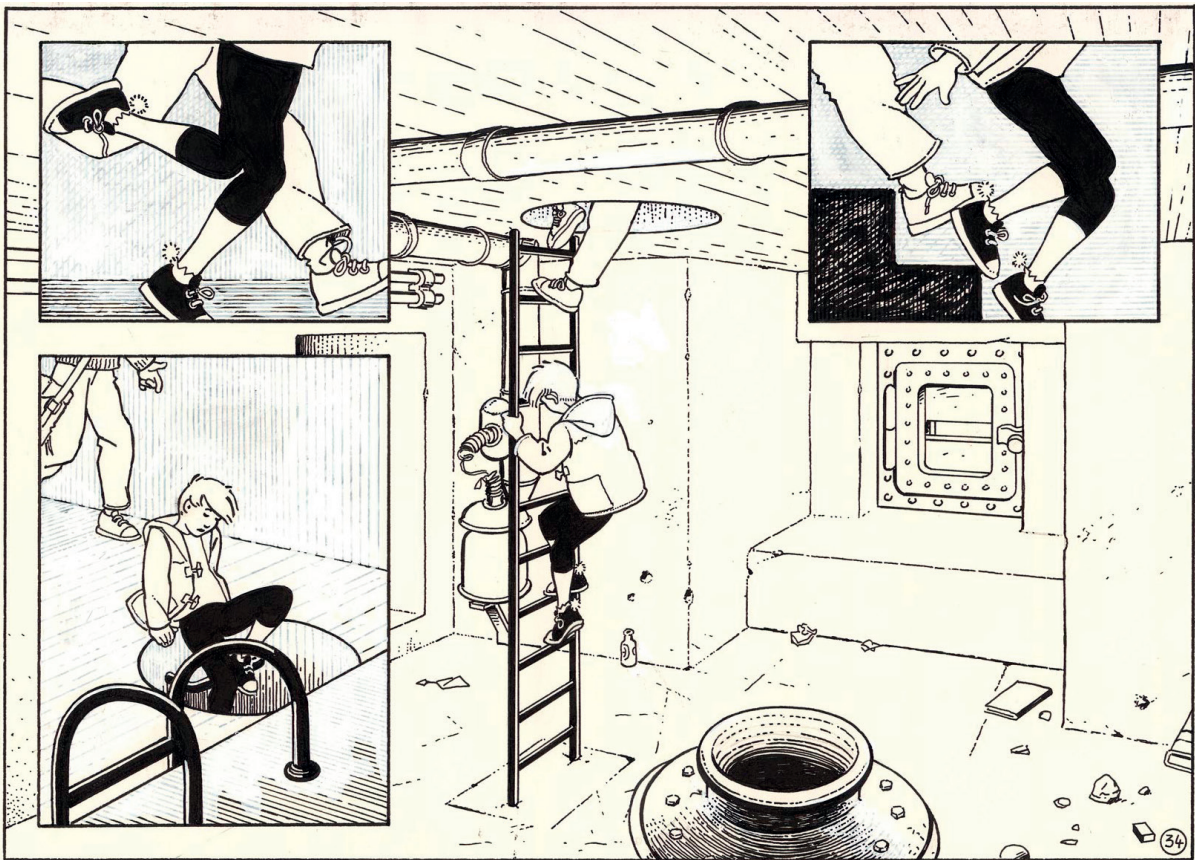

This exhibition will be showing a selection of plates from his series Angelot du Lac, which tells the story of a group of orphans in the Middle Ages struggling to survive in a country ravaged by the Hundred Years War. There will also be plates from Marion Duval, his series relating to a 9-year-old girl living in Paris, and various drawings taken from the albums Corbeille et Corbillo and John Chatterton (whose protagonist is a feline detective).

Angelot du Lac, Le temps des loups, Tome 1 - 45 x 34 cm

Lilas : Une enquête de John Chatterton, La découverte de la voiture - Pages 18-19 - 24,5 x 62 cm

Marion Duval, L'homme aux mouettes, Tome 7 - 45 x 34 cm

HUBERTY & BREYNE

Huberty & Breyne is a contemporary art gallery specialising in original cartoon work. Operating out of Brussels and Paris under the direction of Alain Huberty and Marc Breyne, the gallery – which has been in existence for almost 30 years – represents both established and up-and-coming artists linked to, or inspired by, the 9th art.

Its exhibitions of original plates, paintings and sculptures champion contemporary art in all its guises and provide a platform for the crossover of different disciplines. A key reference point in the world of comic art, the Huberty & Breyne gallery offers collectors a rigorous selection of works by both household names and promising newcomers.

The gallery is closely involved with the contemporary art market scene and a contributor at major international fairs such as Brafa (Brussels Antiques & Fine Arts Fair), 1 – 54 London, Art Paris and Drawing Now. It occupies a 1,000m² exhibition space in Brussels, in place du Châtelain, and two further exhibition spaces in Paris, in avenue Matignon and rue Chapon. The latter – the Huberty & Breyne | Les Arts dessinés gallery – is dedicated to contemporary drawing under the direction of Frédéric Bosser.

Aside from running the gallery, Alain Huberty and Marc Breyne also advise auction houses regarding the sale of works of comic art.
